Parties:

Good morning. I read the (below attached) email communication this morning, and I believe that it was inadvertently not copied to all parties. Pursuant to all relevant ex parte policy and procedure, I am now copying the email to all parties, and having it posted to the Commission's DMS.

To answer the inquiry:

Mr. Marcinak, a proposed order will not be necessary in this case. Thank you!

Regards,
David Stark

David,

In the past, PSC counsel has asked me to prepare a proposed order to help speed the process along once the PSC approves the application. Would you like me to do that here?

Thank you,

I cannot imagine that 2:00 would be insufficient for hearing purposes. Once again, however, I am not an authority on how all those connections happen.

It seems a little early to me, but frankly, I am not involved with that end of the virtual process. I understand that the virtual connections happen significantly before the hearing time to resolve any issues.

I see. I have sent them an email to get you the webex invitation ASAP. I'm sure you have, by now, all used this or a similar product. I anticipate the Business Meeting will be over at about 2:30. I would suggest not being on later than that. I will get you the information needed for connection as quickly as possible. I was of the misunderstanding that this connection had already occurred. Apologies.

David,

I wanted to check on tomorrow's hearing. It is supposed to begin after the 2:00 business meeting. Do you have an indication of about what time the PSC will get to our matter? Also, are we to call in to the number and use the access code on the spreadsheet you provided previously? If so, what time should we call in?

Thanks,

Fred
